Summer is Back!

Summer Session Information

An improved budget picture will enable the San Diego Community College District to restore summer college credit courses this year for the first time since 2009. More than 1,000 classes will be offered at City, Mesa, and Miramar colleges at $46 a unit – including numerous online courses. In addition, San Diego Continuing Education will offer nearly 2,000 free noncredit classes at its seven campuses in San Diego.

Classes in high-demand areas such as allied health, basic skills, hospitality and consumer sciences, and career technical studies will be among those being offered. The primary summer session is set for June 16 – Aug. 9, but three other sessions also will be held: May 27 – June 28; June 9 – Aug. 2; and June 30 – Aug. 2.

Plans call for approximately 435 summer courses at City College, 423 at Mesa College, and 203 at Miramar College.

Important deadlines:

April 15: Summer class schedule posted at http://schedule.sdccd.edu

April 30: Deadline for new students to file an application for admission for summer and receive priority registration.

May 12-23: Registration by appointment.

May 27: Open registration begins.
